Atlantic Broadband Names Debbie Eblen As New Vice President And General Manager For South Carolina Region

QUINCY, Mass., October 11, 2016 – Atlantic Broadband, the nation's 9th largest cable operator, today announced the appointment of Debbie Eblen, a lifelong Aiken resident, to the position of Vice President and General Manager for its South Carolina region.

In her new leadership role with the company, Eblen will oversee residential and business customer operations, technical support and local marketing and sales initiatives in Atlantic Broadband's growing South Carolina region which includes residents and businesses in Aiken, Allendale, Fairfax, Barnwell and the surrounding service areas including Graniteville, Jackson, New Ellenton, Wagener and Warrenville.

"Drawing on her more than 25 years of experience in the communications industry and tenure in the local community, Debbie Eblen is a great asset to our team and we look forward to her leading and continuing to grow our South Carolina region in this new role," said Atlantic Broadband President and Chief Executive Officer, Richard Shea.

Eblen has been with Atlantic Broadband for nearly three years. Most recently, she served as the company's Business Sales and Service Director for South Carolina. In this role, she worked with current and prospective local businesses to ensure their business communications services and products worked seamlessly to meet growing demands.

Eblen graduated with degrees in Business Management and Psychology from the University of South Carolina at Aiken. She is an active member of the Aiken community where she resides with her family.
