Cogeco to Launch Internet Service in Five New Markets in Quebec, Available to More Than 300,000 New Homes

MONTRÉAL, Sept. 16, 2025 /CNW/ - Cogeco Communications Inc. (TSX: CCA) proudly announces it will launch Internet services on October 6, 2025, in Québec City, Châteauguay, Cap-de-la-Madeleine, Saint-Louis-de-France and Sainte-Marthe-du-Cap, offering customers new, compelling options in these markets.

"We are entering five new Quebec markets with a strong commitment to offer an unparalleled customer experience," said Nancy Audette, Chief Growth Officer. "For nearly 70 years, Cogeco has connected Quebecers. We are excited to continue growing our presence throughout the province."

Residents of these five new markets can expect an easy-to-use digital experience, combined with simple and transparent pricing. More details will be shared very soon, and customers are invited to pre-register today by visiting Cogeco's website at cogeco.ca.
