COGECO AND COGECO COMMUNICATIONS BOARDS OF DIRECTORS REJECT REVISED UNSOLICITED NON-BINDING PROPOSAL FROM ALTICE AND ROGERS

Montreal, October 20, 2020 – Cogeco Inc. (TSX: CGO) and Cogeco Communications Inc. (TSX: CCA) (collectively, the "Corporations") today announced that their boards of directors have unanimously rejected the revised unsolicited, non-binding proposal from Altice USA, Inc. of New York and Rogers Communications Inc. of Toronto announced on October 18, 2020.

The boards of directors of the Corporations met earlier today to consider the revised unsolicited, non-binding proposal from Altice USA, Inc. and Rogers Communications Inc. At that meeting, Mr. Louis Audet, as representative of the Audet family, formally confirmed to the boards the publicly stated unanimous position of the Audet family as set out in its press release dated October 18, 2020. Following separate deliberations of the independent board members supported by independent legal counsel, taking into account the stated position of the Audet family, the boards rejected the revised unsolicited, non-binding proposal and will not engage with Altice and Rogers.

The Corporations will not comment any further at this time.
