Montréal, April 13, 2023 – Today, Cogeco Inc. (TSX: CGO) ("Cogeco" or the "Corporation") announced its financial results for the second quarter ended February 28, 2023.

"Our overall operating strategies proved to be effective in the context of more challenging economic and competitive environments," said Philippe Jetté, President and Chief Executive Officer of Cogeco Inc.

"Our Canadian telecommunications business unit performed well in the quarter, which was marked by continued organic growth in our Internet customer base, both in our traditional markets and in our newly served areas, resulting in growing adjusted EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA margins," continued Mr. Jetté. "In addition, the acquisition in March of the telecommunications operations of oxio is a great addition to our service offering and brings a second brand to serve the telecommunications needs of Canadians."

"With respect to our U.S. telecommunications business, we have grown our customer base outside our newly acquired Ohio footprint, both in our current and newly served areas," added Mr. Jetté. "In Ohio, we continued our commercial integration activities while enhancing our product line by making our IPTV product available to all our customers, setting the foundation for future growth. Our progress and marketing efforts have paid off, with Internet customer metrics improving over previous quarters."

"In our broadcasting operations, while the advertising market remains challenging, Cogeco Media's performance was in line with our expectations," added Mr. Jetté. "We are pleased that our 98.5 station is still number one in the country, as confirmed by the Winter 2023 Numeris survey results. In addition, we continue to broaden our digital advertising technology solutions to expand our multiplatform audio content options."

"I am pleased to highlight that we recently published our annual ESG and Sustainability Report as well as our Climate Action Plan, in which we respectively provide an update of our environmental, social and governance commitments, initiatives and performance and outline the key steps we are taking in support of urgent climate action," continued Mr. Jetté. "We are also very proud to be, for the fourth consecutive year, ranked among the 100 most sustainable companies in the world by Corporate Knights, a highly-regarded global ranking of companies that are leading the way in making the world a better place," concluded Mr. Jetté.

Operating results

For the second quarter of fiscal 2023:

- Revenue increased by 1.2% to reach $757.2 million. On a constant currency basis, revenue decreased by 1.6%, driven by a lower customer base in the American telecommunications segment offset by a growth in the Canadian telecommunications segment and in the media activities, which is further explained as follows:
 - Canadian telecommunications' revenue increased by 1.7% as reported and in constant currency, mainly driven by the cumulative effect of high-speed Internet service additions over the past year and higher revenue per customer.
 - American telecommunications' revenue decreased by 5.2% on a constant currency basis (increase of 0.6% as reported), mainly due to a lower customer base following customer losses in Ohio and an overall decline in video and phone service customers, offset in part by the cumulative effect of high-speed Internet service additions outside Ohio over the past year, higher revenue per customer and a better product mix.
 - Revenue in the media activities increased by 5.3%.
- Adjusted EBITDA increased by 0.7% to reach $351.7 million. On a constant currency basis, adjusted EBITDA decreased by 1.8%, mainly due to a decline in the American telecommunications segment partly offset by an adjusted EBITDA growth in the Canadian telecommunications segment, as further explained below:
 - Canadian telecommunications adjusted EBITDA increased by 2.6%, or 3.1% in constant currency, mostly driven by revenue growth.
 - American telecommunications adjusted EBITDA decreased by 2.2%, or 7.8% in constant currency, mainly resulting from lower revenue, combined with higher operating expenses as last year's marketing and advertising spending and staff costs were unusually low in Ohio while operating under the previous owner's brand.

- Profit for the period amounted to $102.6 million, of which $33.8 million, or $2.15 per diluted share, was attributable to owners of the Corporation compared to $118.8 million, $36.7 million, and $2.29 per diluted share, respectively, in the comparable period of fiscal 2022. The decreases resulted mainly from higher financial expense, acquisition, integration, restructuring and other costs and depreciation and amortization expense, partly offset by lower income taxes.
- Net capital expenditures, which account for construction subsidies, were $156.8 million, an increase of 10.1% compared to $142.5 million in the same period of the prior year. In constant currency, net capital expenditures were $149.1 million, an increase of 4.6% compared to last year, driven by accelerated network expansion activities in Canada.
 - Excluding network expansion projects, net capital expenditures were $114.6 million, an increase of 8.6% compared to $105.5 million in the same period of the prior year. In constant currency, net capital expenditures excluding network expansion projects⁽¹⁾ were $108.1 million, an increase of 2.5% compared to last year.
 - Fibre-to-the-home network expansion projects continued in both Canada and the United States, with unprecedented homes passed additions of more than 140,000 since the beginning of last year, of which approximately 70,000 were added during the first half of fiscal 2023 in addition to the 70,000 added in fiscal 2022.
- Acquisition of property, plant and equipment increased by 9.8% to $173.7 million, mainly due to network expansion projects in Canada.
- Free cash flow decreased by 23.0%, or 21.6% in constant currency, and amounted to $118.3 million, mainly due to higher financial expense, lower adjusted EBITDA, and higher net capital expenditures and acquisition, integration, restructuring and other costs.
 - Free cash flow, excluding network expansion projects decreased by 15.8%, or 15.4% in constant currency, and amounted to $160.6 million.
- Cash flows from operating activities decreased by 25.8% to reach $206.8 million, driven by a net outflow in non-cash operating activities of $66.2 million compared to $25.4 million in the comparative period, resulting mostly from the timing of trade and other payables, as well as an increase in income taxes and interest paid.
- Cogeco purchased and cancelled 117,584 subordinate voting shares for a total consideration of $6.9 million, compared to 154,388 subordinate voting shares purchased and cancelled in the comparable quarter of fiscal 2022, for a total consideration of $12.3 million.
- Cogeco maintains its fiscal 2023 financial guidelines as issued on January 13, 2023.
- At its April 13, 2023 meeting, the Board of Directors of Cogeco declared a quarterly eligible dividend of $0.731 per share, an increase of 17% compared to $0.625 per share in the comparable quarter of fiscal 2022.

(3) Adjusted EBITDA and net capital expenditures are total of segments measures. Free cash flow, free cash flow, excluding network expansion projects and net capital expenditures, excluding network expansion projects are non-IFRS financial measures. Change in constant currency is a non-IFRS ratio. Net indebtedness is a capital management measure. These indicated terms do not have standardized definitions prescribed by International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") and, therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies. For the three and six-month periods ended February 28, 2022, acquisition, integration, restructuring and other costs resulted mostly from costs incurred in connection with the acquisition, completed on September 1, 2021, and integration of the Ohio broadband systems.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS ("MD&A")

Three and six-month periods ended February 28, 2023

1. Forward-looking statements

Certain statements contained in this Management's Discussion and Analysis ("MD&A") may constitute forward-looking information within the meaning of securities laws. Forward-looking information may relate to Cogeco Inc.'s ("Cogeco" or the "Corporation") future outlook and anticipated events, business, operations, financial performance, financial condition or results and, in some cases, can be identified by terminology such as "may"; "will"; "should"; "expect"; "plan"; "anticipate"; "believe"; "intend"; "estimate"; "predict"; "potential"; "continue"; "foresee", "ensure" or other similar expressions concerning matters that are not historical facts. Particularly, statements regarding the Corporation's financial guidelines, future operating results and economic performance, objectives and strategies are forward-looking statements. These statements are based on certain factors and assumptions including expected growth, results of operations, purchase price allocation, tax rates, weighted average cost of capital, performance and business prospects and opportunities, which Cogeco believes are reasonable as of the current date. Refer in particular to the "Corporate objectives and strategies" section of the Corporation's 2022 annual MD&A and of the current MD&A, the "Fiscal 2023 financial guidelines" section of the Corporation's 2022 annual MD&A and the "Fiscal 2023 revised financial guidelines" of the fiscal 2023 first-quarter MD&A for a discussion of certain key economic, market and operational assumptions we have made in preparing forward-looking statements. While management considers these assumptions to be reasonable based on information currently available to the Corporation, they may prove to be incorrect. Forward-looking information is also subject to certain factors, including risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from what Cogeco currently expects. These factors include risks such as competitive risks (including changing competitive ecosystems and disruptive competitive strategies adopted by our competitors), business risks (including potential disruption to our supply chain caused by economic and geopolitical instability and other contributing factors, increasing transportation lead times, scarcity and shortages of input materials and key telecommunication equipment and competition for limited resources), regulatory risks, technology risks (including cybersecurity), financial risks (including variations in currency and interest rates), economic conditions (including inflation pressuring revenue, reduced consumer spending and increasing costs), human-caused and natural threats to our network (including increased frequency of extreme weather events with the potential to disrupt operations), infrastructure and systems, community acceptance risks, ethical behavior risks, ownership risks, litigation risks and public health and safety, many of which are beyond the Corporation's control. Moreover, the Corporation's radio operations are significantly exposed to advertising budgets from the retail industry, which can fluctuate due to changing economic conditions. For more exhaustive information on these risks and uncertainties, the reader should refer to the "Uncertainties and main risk factors" sections of the Corporation's 2022 annual MD&A and of the current MD&A. These factors are not intended to represent a complete list of the factors that could affect Cogeco and future events and results may vary significantly from what management currently foresees. The reader should not place undue importance on forward-looking information contained in this MD&A which represent Cogeco's expectations as of the date of this MD&A (or as of the date they are otherwise stated to be made) and are subject to change after such date. While management may elect to do so, the Corporation is under no obligation (and expressly disclaims any such obligation) and does not undertake to update or alter this information at any particular time, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.

All amounts are stated in Canadian dollars unless otherwise indicated. This report should be read in conjunction with the Corporation's condensed interim consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto for the three and six-month periods ended February 28, 2023 prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") and the Corporation's 2022 Annual Report.

In preparing this MD&A, the Corporation has taken into account information available up to April 13, 2023, the date of this MD&A, unless otherwise indicated. Additional information relating to the Corporation, including its 2022 Annual Report and Annual Information Form, is available on the SEDAR website at www.sedar.com or on the Corporation's website at corpo.cogeco.com.

2. Overview of the business

Cogeco is a diversified holding corporation which operates in the telecommunications and media sectors. The Corporation's results are reported in two operating segments: Canadian telecommunications and American telecommunications. The reporting structure reflects how the Corporation manages its business activities, makes decisions about resources to be allocated to the segments and assesses their performance.

2.1 Corporate objectives and strategies

Strategy for continued growth

Our growth and value creation activities are focused on growing the business organically, making acquisitions and continuously innovating while returning capital to shareholders and maintaining a prudent level of financial leverage. In order to do so, we leverage our unique North American broadband platform, reliable and resilient networks, innovative products and services, relationships with local communities and customer-centric mindset.

Organic

We aim to differentiate ourselves from the competition and deliver superior quality service by providing a distinctive customer experience. We also seek to be number one in our markets and grow our footprint by extending our network in adjacent areas.

Acquisitions

As a consolidator of regional broadband operators, we continue to seek attractive strategic and complimentary acquisitions in both the U.S. and Canada, where we add value through our operational expertise and synergies.

Innovation

We continuously enhance our product and customer service offerings to benefit our customers, fueled in large part by the acceleration of digital initiatives. Also, we continue to forge ahead with our plan to enter the Canadian mobile services market through a capital efficient model.

Looking further out into the future, we also intend to explore longer-term opportunities by allocating up to $100 million of capital to new growth opportunities. It is anticipated that these funds will be invested over a five-year period on an exploratory basis with the objective of generating attractive long-term returns. Opportunities may include new promising technologies which could enable or accelerate our development, new products likely to be appealing to our customers and/or new geographies that show promise for profitable customer growth in the future. The objective is to create new opportunities for growth in a fast-changing environment while building on our innovation and operational experience and minimizing investment risk due to the limited size of each investment.

For details on the Corporation's key areas of focus of the strategic plan for fiscal 2023, please refer to the "Corporate objectives and strategies" section of the Corporation's 2022 annual MD&A, available at www.sedar.com and on the Corporation's website at corpo.cogeco.com.

2.2 Business developments

Acquisition of the telecommunications operations of oxio

On February 21, 2023, Cogeco Connexion announced the acquisition of the telecommunications operations of oxio. On March 3, 2023, the transaction was completed, for a purchase price of $100 million, subject to customary post-closing adjustments. oxio serves approximately 48,000 residential broadband customers in Québec, Ontario and western provinces. With this acquisition, Cogeco Connexion will now have a second brand to serve the telecommunications needs of Canadians.

High-speed Internet network expansion in Canada and the United States

As part of its plan to extend its high-speed Internet coverage and to provide Internet access in underserved and unserved areas, the Corporation continued, during the first six months of fiscal 2023, its acceleration of high-speed Internet network expansion projects in both Canada and the United States, a portion of which is done in collaboration with governments. Homes passed added during the first six months of fiscal 2023 were about 70,000, in addition to the 70,000 added in fiscal 2022.

Issuance of $300 million senior secured notes

On February 16, 2023, Cogeco Communications completed, pursuant to a private placement, the issuance of $300 million senior secured notes, bearing interest at 5.299% and maturing in February 2033. Cogeco Communications used the net proceeds of the offering to repay existing indebtedness and for other general corporate purposes. The senior secured notes are direct and unsubordinated secured debt obligations of Cogeco Communications and rank equally and pari passu, with all other secured senior indebtedness of Cogeco Communications.

Update on Cogeco's plan to offer mobile services in Canada

The Corporation intends, as part of its growth strategy, to offer mobile services in order to offer a wider range of telecommunications services to consumers and businesses on its operating footprint. The approval by the CRTC of reasonable wholesale MVNO access tariffs, as well as the Corporation securing satisfactory wholesale rates for access to incumbent wireless networks, will be critical to the viability and success of this undertaking.

For further details, please refer to the heading "Implementation of CRTC's MVNO Framework for Mobile Services" under the "Uncertainties and main risk factors" section of the 2022 annual MD&A.

Launch of Breezeline Stream TV and Business Stream TV

Breezeline continued the rollout of Breezeline Stream TV, a new cloud-based service that seamlessly integrates live TV, digital video recording, On Demand and streaming apps for viewing on devices inside and outside the home. Breezeline has recently launched its product in Ohio to all its existing and new customers and more recently in Pennsylvania and Connecticut. In addition, Breezeline launched recently Business Stream TV in certain of its markets, bringing streaming video service to all business customers wherever the Stream TV service is available. Both Breezeline Stream TV and Business Stream TV will be launched in additional markets later in the year.

2.3 Operating environment

The Corporation operates in an industry which provides important services for residential and commercial consumers, and which is known for its resiliency during various economic cycles. However, as higher inflation and interest rates continue to affect the global economy, combined with greater competitive intensity in the United States, the Corporation expects continued pressure on its revenue and operating costs, which is being partially addressed through proactive cost mitigation measures.

The Corporation's results discussed herein may not be indicative of future operational trends and financial performance. Please refer to the "Forward-looking statements" section.

2.4 Key performance indicators

The Corporation measures its financial performance, with regard to its corporate objectives, by monitoring revenue, adjusted EBITDA ⁽¹⁾, net capital expenditures ⁽¹⁾ and free cash flow ⁽¹⁾ on a constant currency basis ⁽¹⁾. The Corporation also measures net capital expenditures and free cash flow excluding network expansion projects ⁽¹⁾ as it provides a common basis for comparing the net capital expenditures to historical net capital expenditures prior to the acceleration of the network expansion projects and for assessing the impact of the network expansion projects on the net capital expenditures and free cash flow. Excluding the impact of net capital expenditures in connection with network expansion projects does not imply it is non-recurring.

Overview

For the first half of fiscal 2023, Cogeco's financial results were as expected.

During the first six months of fiscal 2023, revenue growth, on a constant currency basis, compared to the prior year was driven by growth in the Canadian telecommunications segment, offset in part by a decline in the American telecommunications segment due to a lower customer base, particularly in Ohio. Overall, adjusted EBITDA for the first half remained stable on a constant currency basis to last year. Adjusted EBITDA growth in the Canadian telecommunications segment, mostly driven by revenue growth, was offset by a decline in the American telecommunications segment due to lower revenue and higher operating expenses as last year's marketing and advertising spending and staff costs were unusually low in Ohio while operating under the previous owner's brand.

During the first six months of fiscal 2023, both the Canadian and American telecommunications segments continued their network expansion activities, connecting more homes and businesses to their fibre-to-the-home networks. Homes passed added during the first six months of fiscal 2023 were about 70,000, an increase of approximately 2%. Acceleration of network expansion activities during the first half led to increased net capital expenditures and higher than usual capital intensity, while reducing free cash flow, as expected. These fibre-to-the-home network expansion projects will increase the Corporation's footprint in the provinces of Québec and Ontario and in several areas adjacent to Breezeline's network in the United States.

As for the remainder of the fiscal year, management does not expect the recent acquisition of oxio to have a significant impact on its financial guidelines as previously issued. Accordingly, Cogeco maintains its fiscal 2023 revised financial guidelines as issued on January 12, 2023.

For further details on the Corporation's operating results for the first six months of fiscal 2023, please refer to the "Consolidated operating and financial results", the "Segmented operating and financial results" and the "Cash flows analysis" sections.

(1) Adjusted EBITDA and net capital expenditures are total of segments measures. Constant currency basis, net capital expenditures, excluding network expansion projects, free cash flow and free cash flow, excluding network expansion projects, are non-IFRS financial measures. Change in constant currency is a non-IFRS ratio. These indicated terms do not have standardized definitions prescribed by IFRS and, therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies. For more information on these financial measures, please consult the "Non-IFRS and other financial measures" section.

For the second quarter of fiscal 2023, revenue increased by 1.2% (decrease of 1.6% in constant currency). The decrease in constant currency is mainly attributable to:

- a lower customer base in the American telecommunications segment following customer losses in Ohio and an overall decline in video and phone service customers, offset in part by the cumulative effect of high-speed Internet service additions outside Ohio over the past year, a higher revenue per customer and a better product mix; partly offset by
- revenue growth in the Canadian telecommunications segment, driven by the cumulative effect of high-speed Internet service additions over the past year and higher revenue per customer; and
- higher revenue in the media activities.

For the first six months of fiscal 2023, revenue increased by 3.6% and remained stable in constant currency, driven by the revenue growth in the Canadian telecommunications segment, mostly offset by lower revenue in the American telecommunications segment, due to the same factors noted above.

For the second quarter of fiscal 2023, operating expenses increased by 1.7% (decrease of 1.5% in constant currency). The decrease in constant currency resulted primarily from lower operating expenses in the American telecommunications segment mostly due to reduced video service costs resulting from the decline in video service customers, partly offset by higher operating expenses as last year's marketing and advertising spending and staff costs were unusually low in Ohio while operating expenses in the Canadian telecommunications segment remained stable.

For the first six months of fiscal 2023, operating expenses increased by 4.0% (0.5% in constant currency). The increase in constant currency is mainly due to higher operating expenses in the Canadian telecommunications segment, while operating expenses in the American telecommunications segment remained stable.

For the second quarter of fiscal 2023, adjusted EBITDA increased by 0.7% (decrease of 1.8% in constant currency). The decrease in constant currency is mainly due to:

- a decrease in the American telecommunications segment, mainly resulting from lower revenue, combined with higher operating expenses as last year's marketing and advertising spending and staff costs were unusually low in Ohio while operating under the previous owner's brand; partly offset by
- an increase in the Canadian telecommunications segment, mainly attributable to the revenue growth.

For the first six months of fiscal 2023, adjusted EBITDA remained comparable in constant currency, and increased by 3.1% as reported, mainly as a result of:

- an increase in the Canadian telecommunications segment, mainly attributable to the revenue growth;
- lower corporate costs, mainly due to the timing of certain initiatives; offset by
- a decrease in the American telecommunications segment, mainly due to the same factors noted above.

3.2 Acquisition, integration, restructuring and other costs

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, acquisition, integration, restructuring and other costs amounted to $7.0 million and $9.6 million, respectively, mostly related to:

- a $5.1 million retroactive adjustment recognized during the second quarter of fiscal 2023 related to higher royalty rates than expected for the period of 2016 to 2022 following the Copyright Board preliminary conclusions of the 2016-2018 retransmission tariffs;
- costs related to the ongoing integration of past acquisitions; and
- costs associated with the configuration and customization related to cloud computing arrangements.

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2022, acquisition, integration, restructuring and other costs amounted to $1.5 million and $20.1 million, respectively, mostly related to costs incurred in connection with the acquisition, completed on September 1, 2021, and integration of the Ohio broadband systems.

3.3 Depreciation and amortization

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, depreciation and amortization expense amounted to $155.3 million and $311.7 million, respectively, an increase of 2.7% and 2.6%, respectively, compared to the same periods of the prior year, mainly due to the appreciation of the US dollar against the Canadian dollar since last year.

3.4 Financial expense

	61,985	45,486	36.3	119,512	91,094	31.2

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, financial expense increased by 36.3% and 31.2%, respectively, mainly attributable to:

- higher interest expense on the floating interest rate portion of the Senior Secured Term Loan B Facility, mainly resulting from the increase in interest rates;
- higher usage under the term revolving facilities compared to last year; and
- the appreciation of the US dollar against the Canadian dollar compared to the same periods of the prior year; partly offset by
- lower interest expense following the reimbursement of the $200 million Senior Secured Debentures Series 3 in February 2022; and
- higher interest revenue resulting from investments of excess cash.

3.5 Income taxes

(In thousands of Canadian dollars, except percentages)	Three months ended February 28			Six months ended February 28
	2023	2022	Change	2023	2022	Change

Effective income tax rate	19.5 %	21.3 %	(8.5)	20.5 %	17.5 %	17.1

For the second quarter of fiscal 2023, income tax expense decreased by 22.9%, mainly due to:

- the decrease in profit before income taxes; and
- higher tax benefits related to the Ohio broadband systems acquisition.

For the first six months of fiscal 2023, income tax expense increased by 15.3%, mainly due to:

- last year's $11.9 million adjustment recognized following the Ohio broadband systems acquisition, which reduced the blended state income tax rate, enabling the Corporation to recognize a reduction of deferred tax liability in the first quarter of fiscal 2022 related to U.S. temporary tax differences; partly offset by
- higher tax benefits related to the Ohio broadband systems acquisition; and
- the decrease in profit before income taxes.

Current income taxes were lower in the first six months of fiscal 2023 compared to the same period of the prior year mainly due to the higher tax benefits related to the U.S. subsidiaries and the variation in temporary differences.

3.6 Profit for the period

(In thousands of Canadian dollars, except percentages and earnings per share)	Three months ended February 28			Six months ended February 28
	2023	2022	Change	2023	2022	Change

Diluted earnings per share	2.15	2.29	(6.1)	4.82	4.70	2.6

(1) At February 28, 2023, the non-controlling interest relates to a participation of approximately 64.7% in the profit for the period attributable to owners of Cogeco Communications in addition to the 21% ownership of Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec ("CDPQ") in a U.S. subsidiary of Cogeco Communications.

For the second quarter of fiscal 2023, profit for the period and profit for the period attributable to owners of the Corporation decreased by 13.6% and 7.8%, respectively, mainly due to:

- higher financial expense;
- higher acquisition, integration, restructuring and other costs; and
- higher depreciation and amortization expense; partly offset by
- lower income taxes.

For the first six months of fiscal 2023, profit for the period decreased by 4.8% and profit for the period attributable to owners of the Corporation remained stable, mainly as a result of:

- higher financial expense;
- higher depreciation and amortization expense; and
- higher income taxes; partly offset by
- the impact of the appreciation of the US dollar against the Canadian dollar; and
- lower acquisition, integration, restructuring and other costs.

4. Segmented operating and financial results

The Corporation's results are reported in two operating segments: Canadian telecommunications and American telecommunications.

Following the application of the IFRS Interpretations Committee issued agenda decision Demand Deposits with Restrictions on Use arising from a Contract with a Third Party (IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows) during the third quarter of fiscal 2022, the Corporation changed the label of its "Acquisition of property, plant and equipment" key performance indicator measure to "Net capital expenditures". For further details on the application of this agenda decision, refer to the "Accounting policy developments" section.

Revenue

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, revenue increased by 1.7% and 3.2%, respectively, as reported and in constant currency mainly, mainly as a result of:

- a higher Internet service customer base and revenue per customer; partly offset by
- an overall decline in video and phone service customers.

Operating expenses

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, operating expenses increased by 0.6% and 2.2% (0.1% and 1.5% in constant currency), respectively, mainly due to:

- higher operating expenses to drive and support customer growth; partly offset by
- some efficiencies resulting from the organizational changes implemented in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2022; and
- lower video and phone services costs.

Adjusted EBITDA

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, adjusted EBITDA increased by 2.6% and 4.1% (3.1% and 4.7% in constant currency), respectively, resulting from revenue growth, partly offset by increased operating expenses.

Net capital expenditures and capital intensity

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, net capital expenditures increased by 20.1% and 45.4% (14.9% and 40.3% in constant currency), respectively, mainly due to the acceleration of construction efforts and higher purchases of customer premise equipment related to high-speed Internet network expansions in Québec and Ontario.

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, capital intensity was 22.1% and 26.6% compared to 18.7% and 18.9% for the same periods of fiscal 2022. The capital intensity increase for both periods is mainly explained by higher net capital expenditures related to network expansion projects, partly offset by the revenue growth.

(2) During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2022, the Corporation modified its definition of Internet service customers in order to be consistent with industry practices. The previous definition included wholesale Internet customers. As per the new definition, Internet service customers include only customers who have their Internet service installed, operated and billed directly by the Corporation. This change has been applied retrospectively to the comparative figures.

Primary service units

Internet

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, Internet service customers net additions of 7,799 and 10,262, respectively, resulted primarily from new customers following fibre-to-the-home network expansions, mainly in Québec, combined with increased connections driven by successful marketing and advertising efforts.

Video

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, video service customers net losses of 4,335 and 12,596, respectively, were mainly due to the continuous change in the video consumption environment, further impacted by the current inflationary environment, with an increasing proportion of customers only subscribing to Internet services, partly offset by additions resulting from network expansions.

Phone

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, phone service customers net losses of 2,095 and 7,376, respectively, were mainly due to a higher level of service disconnections in the context of the continuous increase in mobile wireless penetration and of the current inflationary environment, causing some customers to cancel their landline phone services for mobile phone services only.

Distribution of customers

At February 28, 2023, 65% of the Canadian telecommunications segment's customers subscribed to "double play" or "triple play" bundled services.

Homes passed

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, homes passed additions were 15,329 and 35,057, respectively.

Revenue

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, revenue increased by 0.6% and 3.9% (decrease of 5.2% and 2.7% in constant currency), respectively. The decreases in constant currency for both periods resulted mainly from:

- a lower customer base as a result of customer losses in Ohio over the past year following the customer management and billing systems' migration during the second half of fiscal 2022 and an overall decline in video and phone service customers; partly offset by
- the cumulative effect of high-speed Internet service additions outside Ohio over the past year; and
- a higher revenue per customer and a better product mix.

Operating expenses

For the second quarter of fiscal 2023, operating expenses increased by 3.0% (decrease of 3.0% in constant currency). The decrease in constant currency is mainly due to:

- reduced video service costs resulting from the decline in video service customers; partly offset by
- higher operating expenses as last year's marketing and advertising spending and staff costs were unusually low in Ohio while operating under the previous owner's brand.

For the first six months of fiscal 2023, operating expenses remained comparable in constant currency, and increased by 6.7% as reported, mainly due to:

- reduced video service costs resulting from the decline in video service customers; offset by
- higher operating expenses as last year's marketing and advertising spending and staff costs were unusually low in Ohio, as explained above.

Adjusted EBITDA

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, adjusted EBITDA decreased by 2.2% and increased by 0.9% (decrease of 7.8% and 5.6% in constant currency), respectively. The decrease in constant currency in both periods is primarily due to lower revenue, combined with higher operating expenses as last year's marketing and advertising spending and staff costs were unusually low in Ohio, as explained above.

Net capital expenditures and capital intensity

For the second quarter of fiscal 2023, net capital expenditures remained comparable to the same period of the prior year (decrease of 5.9% in constant currency) and for the first six months of fiscal 2023, increased by 4.8% (decrease of 1.8% in constant currency). The decrease in both periods in constant currency is mainly due to the timing of certain initiatives.

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, capital intensity was 19.8% and 20.2%, respectively, which is comparable to the same periods of the prior year.

Homes passed resulting from the Ohio broadband systems acquisition as at September 1, 2021 have been adjusted upwards by approximately 19,000 following the migration of the customer management and billing systems during the third quarter of fiscal 2022. This change has been applied retrospectively to the comparative figures.

(2) Excludes the opening primary service units resulting from the Ohio broadband systems acquisition as at September 1, 2021.

Primary service units

Internet

For the second quarter of fiscal 2023, Internet service customers net losses amounted to 3,878, an improvement over previous quarters, as the segment's growth of 1,711 outside its Ohio footprint was offset by net losses of 5,589 in Ohio. The net losses in Ohio are mainly due to a more competitive market and the fact that it will take some time to gain brand awareness in that market. Excluding net losses in Ohio, growth of 1,711 resulted primarily from the ongoing interest in high-speed Internet offerings with a greater proportion of new connections taking faster Internet speeds and from new customers from fibre-to-the-home network expansions. The lower level of connections compared to last year is due to a more competitive market.

For the first six months of fiscal 2023, Internet service customers net losses amounted to 18,051 of which 15,827 pertained to Ohio. The net losses were mainly attributable to the residual impact of the customer management and billing systems' migration in Ohio. The segment was also impacted by a lower level of connections in the context of a more competitive market.

Video

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, video service customers net losses of 8,943 and 22,354, respectively, were mainly due to:

- the continued emphasis on offers that are Internet led and the limitation of residential video-only new offers to customers under bulk agreements;
- the continuous change in the video consumption environment, further impacted by the current inflationary environment, with an increasing proportion of customers only subscribing to Internet services; and
- competitive offers in the industry.

Phone

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, phone service customers net losses of 4,453 and 11,234, respectively, were mainly due to:

- the continued emphasis on offers that are Internet led; and
- a higher level of service disconnections in the context of the continuous increase in mobile wireless penetration and of the current inflationary environment, causing some customers to cancel their landline phone services for mobile phone services only.

Distribution of customers

At February 28, 2023, 34% of the American telecommunications segment's customers subscribed to "double play" or "triple play" bundled services. In recent years, the customer mix from double and triple play bundles has decreased which is in line with the Internet led strategy of focusing on higher margin Internet services.

Homes passed

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, homes passed additions were 17,379 and 34,701, respectively.

6.1 Operating activities

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, cash flows from operating activities decreased by 25.8% and 30.5%, respectively, mainly due to:

- changes in other non-cash operating activities, primarily due to the timing of payments of trade and other payables;
- higher income taxes paid, mainly due to the timing of income tax instalments; and
- higher interest paid; partly offset by
- the appreciation of the US dollar against the Canadian dollar.

6.2 Investing activities

For the second quarter of fiscal 2023, cash flows used in investing activities decreased by 56.1%, mainly as a result of:

- the $236 million final payment made last year to acquire 38 spectrum licences in the 3500 MHz band auction; partly offset by
- the increase in acquisition of property, plant and equipment, following accelerated network expansion activities in the Canadian telecommunications segment.

For the first six months of fiscal 2023, cash flows used in investing activities decreased by 79.3%, mainly due to:

- cash flows used in connection with the acquisition of Ohio broadband systems last year; and
- the $236 million final payment made last year to acquire spectrum licences, as noted above; partly offset by
- the increase in acquisition of property, plant and equipment, following accelerated network expansion activities primarily in the Canadian telecommunications segment.

This indicated term does not have a standardized definition prescribed by IFRS and, therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies. For more information on this financial measure, please consult the "Non-IFRS and other financial measures" section.

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, net capital expenditures increased by 10.1% and 24.7% (4.6% and 18.8% in constant currency), respectively, mainly due to:

- higher capital expenditures in the Canadian telecommunications segment following the acceleration of construction efforts and higher purchases of customer premise equipment related to high-speed Internet network expansions in Québec and Ontario; and
- the timing of certain initiatives in both the Canadian and American telecommunications segments.

For the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023, capital intensity of Cogeco Communications was 21.2% and 23.6%, respectively, compared to 19.5% and 19.6% for the same periods of the prior year. Capital intensity increases for both periods are explained mainly by higher net capital expenditures related to network expansion projects, primarily in the Canadian telecommunications segment, partly offset by the revenue growth. Excluding network expansion projects, the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023 capital intensity of Cogeco Communications, was 15.5% and 16.3% compared to 14.4% and 15.6% for the same periods of the prior year.

For the second quarter of fiscal 2023, free cash flow decreased by 23.0% (21.6% in constant currency). The variation in constant currency is mainly due to:

- higher financial expense;
- lower adjusted EBITDA;
- higher net capital expenditures; and
- higher acquisition, integration, restructuring and other costs.

For the first six months of fiscal 2023, free cash flow decreased by 21.3% (20.4% in constant currency). The variation in constant currency is mainly due to:

- higher net capital expenditures in the Canadian telecommunications segment, mostly resulting from the network expansion projects; and
- higher financial expense; partly offset by
- lower acquisition, integration, restructuring and other costs; and
- lower current income taxes.

Excluding network expansion projects, the second-quarter and the first six months of fiscal 2023 free cash flow amounted to $160.6 million and $335.9 million ($161.4 million and $333.9 million in constant currency), respectively, a decrease of 15.8% and 3.1% (15.4% and 3.6% in constant currency), respectively, compared to the same periods of the prior year.

6.5 Dividend declaration

At its April 13, 2023 meeting, the Board of Directors of Cogeco declared a quarterly eligible dividend of $0.731 per share for multiple and subordinate voting shares, payable on May 11, 2023 to shareholders of record on April 27, 2023. The declaration, amount and date of any future dividend will continue to be considered and approved by the Board of Directors of the Corporation based upon the Corporation's financial condition, results of operations, capital requirements and such other factors as the Board of Directors, at its sole discretion, deems relevant. There is therefore no assurance that dividends will be declared, and if declared, the amount and frequency may vary.

7. Financial position

7.1 Working capital

As part of the usual conduct of its business, Cogeco generally maintains a working capital deficiency, when excluding cash and cash equivalents and bank indebtedness, due to a low level of trade and other receivables since a large proportion of the Corporation's customers pay before their services are rendered, while trade and other payables are usually paid after products are delivered or services are rendered.

At February 28, 2023, Cogeco Communications' weighted average cost of indebtedness, excluding the amortization of deferred transaction costs and commitment fees but including the impact of interest rate swaps, was 4.8%. The overall debt's weighted average term to maturity was 3.9 years.

8.2 Outstanding share data

A description of Cogeco's share data at March 31, 2023 is presented in the table below. Additional details are provided in Note 12 A) of the condensed interim consolidated financial statements.

(In thousands of Canadian dollars, except number of shares)	Number of shares	Amount $
Common shares
Multiple voting shares	1,602,217	10
Subordinate voting shares	14,017,552	112,178

8.3 Financing

On February 16, 2023, Cogeco Communications completed, pursuant to a private placement, the issuance of $300 million senior secured notes, bearing interest at 5.299% and maturing in February 2033. Cogeco Communications used the net proceeds of the offering to repay existing indebtedness and for other general corporate purposes. While during the second quarter of fiscal 2023, Cogeco Communications reimbursed the Term Revolving Facility, it is also expected that the facility will be used to repay the $300 million Senior Secured Debentures Series 4 maturing in May 2023.

On December 21, 2022, Cogeco Communications amended its $750 million Term Revolving Facility to extend the maturity by one additional year to January 24, 2028. The amendment also replaced US LIBOR with the Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR") as the benchmark interest rate.

Furthermore, in December 2022, Cogeco Communications entered into a 20-year senior unsecured non-revolving facility, having an aggregate principal amount of up to $38.1 million, with the Canada Infrastructure Bank. The credit facility can only be drawn to finance the network expansion projects undertaken in connection with Ontario's Accelerated High Speed Internet Program. At February 28, 2023, the facility was undrawn.

At February 28, 2023, Cogeco Communications had $157.9 million of performance and payment bonds outstanding, issued in accordance with the rules established by Infrastructure Ontario in connection with Ontario's Accelerated High Speed Internet Program (AHSIP).

8.4 Cogeco Communications' credit ratings

The table below shows Cogeco Communications' and the U.S. subsidiaries' credit ratings:

At February 28, 2023	S&P	DBRS	Moody's
Cogeco Communications
Senior Secured Notes and Debentures	BBB-	BBB (low)	NR
Corporate credit issuer default rating	BB+	BB (high)	NR
U.S. subsidiaries
First Lien Credit Facilities	BB	NR	B1
Corporate credit issuer default rating	BB	NR	B1

NR : Not rated

Ratings for long-term debt instruments across the universe of composite rates range from "AAA" (S&P and DBRS) or "Aaa" (Moody's), representing the highest quality of securities rated, to "D" (S&P and DBRS) and "C" (Moody's) for the lowest quality of securities rated. Ratings are based on several industry and company specific factors which include financial leverage as one of the key elements considered.

Our ability to access debt capital markets and bank credit markets and the cost and amount of funding available partly depends on the quality of our credit ratings. Obligations rated in the "BBB" category are considered investment grade and their cost of funding is typically lower relative to the "BB/B" rating category. In addition, obligations with "BBB" ratings generally have greater access to funding than those with "BB/B" ratings.

8.5 Financial risk management

Management's objectives are to protect the Corporation and its subsidiaries against material economic exposures and variability of results, and against certain financial risks including credit, liquidity, interest rate, foreign exchange and market risks which are described in the Corporation's 2022 annual consolidated financial statements.

Credit risk

The lowest credit rating of the counterparties to the derivative financial instruments agreements at February 28, 2023 is "A-" by Standard & Poor's rating services ("S&P"). In the current volatile financial market environment, management continues to monitor its exposure to financial institutions which is primarily in the form of deposits, derivatives and revolver commitments.

Liquidity risk

At February 28, 2023, the Corporation had used $46.5 million of its $100 million Term Revolving Facility and an amount of $0.03 million was used from Cogeco Communications' Term Revolving Facility of $750 million, for remaining availabilities of $53.5 million and $749.98 million, respectively. In addition, Cogeco Communications' U.S. subsidiaries benefit from a Senior Secured Revolving Facility of $204.1 million (US$150 million), of which $3.7 million (US$2.7 million) was used at February 28, 2023 for a remaining availability of $200.4 million (US$147.3 million). The amounts used from Cogeco Communications' facilities consist solely of letters of credit.

Interest rate risk

At February 28, 2023, all of the Corporation's and Cogeco Communications' long-term debt was at fixed rate, except for the amounts drawn under the Corporation's Term Revolving Facility and Cogeco Communications' First Lien Credit Facilities, which are subject to floating interest rates.

To reduce the risk on the floating interest rate instruments and mitigate the impact of interest rate variations, Cogeco Communications' U.S. subsidiary entered into fixed interest rate swap agreements. The following table shows the interest rate swaps outstanding at February 28, 2023:

Type of hedge	Notional amount	Receive interest rate	Pay interest rate	Maturity	Hedged item
Cash flow	US$540 million	US LIBOR base rate ⁽¹⁾	2.07% - 2.26%	January 2024 - November 2024	Senior Secured Term Loan B - Tranche 1
Cash flow	US$800 million	US LIBOR base rate with a 50 bps floor	1.22% - 1.46%	October 2025 - July 2027	Senior Secured Term Loan B - Tranche 2

(1) Two tranches amounting to US$230 million have matured on January 31, 2023.

The sensitivity of the Corporation's annual financial expense to an increase of 1% in the interest rate applicable to the unhedged portion of these facilities would represent an increase of approximately $15.9 million based on the outstanding debt and swap agreements at February 28, 2023.

Considering that the remaining US LIBOR benchmark rates will be discontinued on June 30, 2023, the Corporation will transition its US LIBOR interest derivatives to expected substantially similar interest derivatives referencing SOFR.

8.6 Foreign currency

For the three and six-month periods ended February 28, 2023 and 2022, the average rates prevailing used to convert the operating results of the American telecommunications segment were as follows:

	Three months ended February 28		Six months ended February 28
	2023	2022	2023	2022
	$	$	$	$
US dollar vs Canadian dollar	1.3488	1.2709	1.3489	1.2634

8.7 Contingencies

Royalties payable for retransmission of distant television signals

On July 22, 2021, the Federal Court of Appeal issued a decision in response to two applications for judicial review filed by six broadcasting distribution undertakings ("BDUs") (including Cogeco Communications) and nine collective societies challenging a decision by the Copyright Board setting the quantum of royalties payable for the retransmission of distant Canadian and U.S. television over-the-air signals in Canada, for the 2014-2018 period. The Federal Court of Appeal determined that the 2014 and 2015 rates would be final but agreed with the collective societies that the Copyright Board had made errors in determining the 2016 to 2018 rates. The Federal Court of Appeal has sent the matter back to the Copyright Board, which initiated a new proceeding to determine the rates from 2016 onwards.

On February 6, 2023, the Copyright Board issued its preliminary conclusions in its redetermination of the 2016 to 2018 rates, which would result in an increase from the rate set in its original decision. In light of these preliminary determinations, the Corporation has recognized an amount of $5.1 million during the second quarter of fiscal 2023, within Acquisition, integration, restructuring and other costs, related to the estimated retroactive costs for the period of 2016 to 2022. The final outcome of this proceeding is still unknown and the Copyright Board's final determinations regarding royalty rates may vary from its preliminary determinations.

9. Environmental, social and governance (ESG) practices

The Corporation has defined its ESG strategy, guided by its core organizational values, with commitments centered on the key ESG levers of reducing its environmental footprint, implementing strong governance practices and supporting its stakeholders. The Corporation monitors its sustainability related progress based on a set of key performance indicators that are reviewed as needed to ensure continued relevance.

On January 18, 2023, Cogeco Communications announced that it has been ranked for a fourth consecutive year among the world's 100 most sustainable corporations according to Corporate Knights. This year, Cogeco Communications holds the 45th spot in this highly regarded global ranking of companies that are leading the way in making the world a better place, up 36 places from 81st last year. Furthermore, Cogeco Communications was included in the 2023 S&P Global Sustainability Yearbook for the second year in a row. The annual Sustainability Yearbook aims to distinguish individual companies, within their industries, that have demonstrated strengths in corporate sustainability.

On March 1, 2023, Cogeco unveiled its seventh ESG and Sustainability Report, which details its ESG commitments, initiatives and performance that are aimed at driving sustainable and inclusive growth. Cogeco's ESG and Sustainability report is available on the Corporation's website at corpo.cogeco.com, under "Sustainability - ESG Practices (Environment, Social, Governance)".

Cogeco remains committed to supporting the transition to a low carbon economy while ensuring that the effects of climate change are systematically considered and integrated into its business strategy and related decisions. On January 25, 2023, Cogeco published its second Climate Action Plan and Task Force on Climate-Related Disclosures (TCFD) report outlining the key steps it is taking in support of urgent climate action, as well as its processes and strategies to assess and manage climate-related risks and opportunities. Cogeco's 2022 Climate Action Plan and TCFD report is also available on the Corporation's website at corpo.cogeco.com, under "Sustainability - ESG Practices (Environment, Social, Governance)".

Cogeco is proud to promote sustainable and inclusive growth through its long tradition of corporate citizenship and community involvement, concrete measures to fight climate change, efficient operating practices, and strong commitment to responsible and ethical management.

For details on the Corporation's ESG strategy and related achievements and priorities, please refer to the "Environmental, social and governance (ESG) practices" section of the Corporation's 2022 annual MD&A, available at www.sedar.com and corpo.cogeco.com, and the ESG and Sustainability report published in March 2023, available on the Corporation's website at corpo.cogeco.com. Detailed KPIs can be found in Cogeco's ESG data supplement, which is also available on the Corporation's website at corpo.cogeco.com.

10. Controls and procedures

Internal control over financial reporting ("ICFR") is a process designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with IFRS. The President and Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and the Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), together with management, are responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate disclosure controls and procedures ("DC&P") and ICFR, as defined in National Instrument 52-109. Cogeco's internal control framework is based on the criteria published in the updated version released in May 2013 of the report Internal Control – Integrated Framework published by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission.

The CEO and CFO, supported by management, evaluated the design of the Corporation's DC&P and ICFR at February 28, 2023, and concluded that they are adequate. Furthermore, no significant changes to the internal controls over financial reporting occurred during the three and six-month periods ended February 28, 2023.

11. Uncertainties and main risk factors

A detailed description of the uncertainties and main risk factors faced by Cogeco can be found in the 2022 annual MD&A, available at www.sedar.com and corpo.cogeco.com. The following update should be read together with the uncertainties and main risk factors described in the 2022 Annual Report, which are hereby incorporated by reference.

New policy direction to the CRTC

On February 13, 2023, the Government of Canada adopted a new policy direction to the CRTC with respect to telecommunications services. The new policy direction replaces existing policy directions issued in 2006 and 2019. It echoes the 2019 direction in directing the CRTC to consider how its decisions can promote competition, affordability, consumer interests and innovation, and adds a mention of the importance of reliable and resilient telecommunications services. The policy direction also directs the CRTC to enforce the principles of effective regulation, to maintain its wholesale regimes for fixed Internet and mobile wireless services, and to enhance and protect consumer rights in telecommunications markets. The impact of the policy direction will depend on how the CRTC interprets and applies it in a decision-and policy-making context.

Review of the wholesale high-speed access framework

On March 8, 2023, the CRTC launched a consultation to review its existing framework for wholesale high-speed access ("HSA") services. The CRTC is seeking comments on several issues, including its preliminary views that (i) the provision of aggregated wholesale HSA services should be mandated; (ii) access to fibre-to-the-premises ("FTTP") facilities should be provided over these services; and (iii) the provision of FTTP facilities over aggregated wholesale high-speed access services should be mandated on a temporary and expedited basis. The CRTC is also seeking comments on whether retail regulation should be considered to address concerns regarding market concentration and the potential exercise of market power. Concurrently with the launch of the consultation, the CRTC determined that the current rates for aggregated wholesale HSA services would be made interim, and directed incumbents to file tariff applications with new proposed rates for these services. The CRTC also applied an immediate interim reduction to existing rates that reflects a 10% decrease in the capacity rates incumbents can charge to wholesale-based competitors, until revised final rates are established.

A decision by the CRTC that would result in greater regulation of wholesale HSA services, the implementation of final aggregated wholesale HSA rates that are significantly below the final rates established in Telecom Decision 2021-181, or the introduction of regulatory measures at the retail level could have a material adverse effect on the Corporation's business, financial condition and results of operations.

12. Accounting policy developments

12.1 Change in accounting policies

Demand Deposits with Restrictions on Use arising from a Contract with a Third Party (IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows)

During the third quarter of fiscal 2022, the Corporation changed the presentation of the cash from subsidies received in advance, following the application of the IFRS Interpretations Committee's agenda decision Demand Deposits with Restrictions on Use arising from a Contract with a Third Party (IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows). These funds, which were previously presented as Restricted cash, were reclassified as Cash and cash equivalents in the Corporation's consolidated statements of financial position and consolidated statements of cash flows, on a retrospective basis. The application of this agenda decision had no impact on the ultimate recognition of the subsidies, for which Property, plant and equipment continues to be recorded net of subsidies, within the consolidated statement of financial position.

The changes in presentation for the comparative periods presented in the condensed interim consolidated financial statements are summarized as follows:

Consolidated statements of cash flows

	Three months ended February 28, 2022			Six months ended February 28, 2022
	As previously reported	Effect of change in presentation	As currently reported	As previously reported	Effect of change in presentation	As currently reported

Cash and cash equivalents, end of the period	180,580	163,036	343,616	180,580	163,036	343,616

- (1) The application of this agenda decision resulted in an increase of $15.7 million and $20.5 million, respectively, in Acquisition of property, plant and equipment, in the Corporation's interim consolidated statements of cash flows for the three and six-month periods ended February 28, 2022, as subsidies received in advance were previously presented as a reduction of Acquisition of property, plant and equipment based on the costs incurred in connection with these subsidized projects over the total expected costs.
- (2) At November 30, 2021 and August 31, 2021, restricted cash totalling $178.7 million and $183.5 million, respectively, were reclassified to Cash and cash equivalents, in the Corporation's consolidated statements of financial position and consolidated statements of cash flows for the periods then ended.

12.2 Future changes to standards, interpretations and amendments to standards and interpretations

New standards, interpretations and amendments to standards and interpretations were issued by the IASB or the IFRS Interpretations Committee, but have not yet been applied in preparing the condensed interim consolidated financial statements. The following issued amendments to standards may have an impact on future consolidated financial statements of the Corporation:

Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current and Non-current Liabilities with Covenants - Amendments to IAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements	In January 2020, the IASB issued Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current (Amendments to IAS 1) to clarify the criterion for classifying a liability as non-current relating to the right to defer settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period. In October 2022, the IASB issued Non-current Liabilities with Covenants (Amendments to IAS 1) to clarify how conditions with which an entity must comply within twelve months after the reporting period affect the classification of a liability. The amendments also require an entity to disclose additional information in the notes to the financial statements to enable stakeholders to understand the risk that non-current liabilities could become repayable within twelve months after the reporting date. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2024, with earlier application permitted. The Corporation is currently assessing the impact of these amendments on its consolidated financial statements.
Disclosure of Accounting Policies - Amendments to IAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements, and IFRS Practice Statement 2	In February 2021, the IASB amended IAS 1 to require entities to disclose their material accounting policy information rather than their significant accounting policies. Further amendments to IAS 1 are made to explain how an entity can identify a material accounting policy. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023, with earlier application permitted. The Corporation is currently assessing the impact of these amendments on its accounting policies disclosure.

13. Non-IFRS and other financial measures

This section describes non-IFRS and other financial measures used by Cogeco throughout this MD&A. These financial measures are reviewed in assessing the performance of Cogeco and used in the decision-making process with regard to its business units. Cogeco is also providing information below for certain specified financial measures excluding network expansion projects, as it had issued financial guidelines excluding the impact of these projects on certain of its key performance indicators.

Financial measures presented on a constant currency basis for the three and six-month periods ended February 28, 2023 are translated at the average foreign exchange rate of the comparable periods of the prior year, which were 1.2709 USD/CDN and 1.2634 USD/CDN, respectively.

Non-IFRS financial measures

The following financial measures used by the Corporation do not have standardized definitions prescribed by IFRS and therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures disclosed by other companies. Reconciliations, or references to the specific sections within the MD&A where these reconciliations are provided, as applicable, between these non-IFRS financial measures to the most directly comparable IFRS financial measures are provided below.

Specified financial measures	Usefulness	Calculation	Most directly comparable IFRS financial measures
Constant currency basis and foreign exchange impact	The Corporation presents certain financial measures in constant currency to enable an improved understanding of its underlying financial performance, undistorted by the effects of changes in foreign exchange rates, in order to facilitate period-to-period comparisons. Financial measures presented on a constant currency basis include financial guidelines and certain historical financial measures, including revenue, operating expenses, adjusted EBITDA, net capital expenditures and free cash flow.	Financial guidelines presented on a constant currency basis are obtained by translating expected financial results denominated in US dollars at the foreign exchange rates of the prior fiscal year. Historical financial measures presented on a constant currency basis are obtained by translating financial results from the current period denominated in US dollars at the foreign exchange rates of the comparable period of the prior year. Foreign exchange impact represents the quantification of such impact.	Revenue, operating expenses, adjusted EBITDA and net capital expenditures. For free cash flow, refer to the definition below for the most directly comparable IFRS financial measure.
Organic revenue in constant currency and adjusted EBITDA in constant currency	Organic revenue in constant currency and adjusted EBITDA in constant currency are used by management to analyze the Corporations' revenue and adjusted EBITDA growth excluding the effects of changes in foreign exchange rates and the impact of acquisitions, in order to facilitate period-to-period comparisons. Management believes these measures are used by certain investors and analysts to evaluate the Corporation's performance. Non-IFRS ratios

The following financial measures used by the Corporation do not have standardized definitions prescribed by IFRS and therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures disclosed by other companies. This MD&A refers to the capital intensity, excluding network expansion projects of Cogeco Communications as it is used by Cogeco Communications to assess the impact of the network expansion projects on the capital intensity.

Specified financial measures	Usefulness	Calculation
Change in constant currency	The Corporation presents changes of certain financial measures in constant currency to enable an improved understanding of its underlying financial performance, undistorted by the effects of changes in foreign exchange rates, in order to facilitate period-to-period comparisons.	Change in constant currency, expressed as a percentage of the variation between the periods presented, is obtained by translating financial results from the current period denominated in US dollars using the foreign exchange rates of the comparable period of the prior year.
Organic revenue growth in constant currency and organic adjusted EBITDA growth in constant currency	Organic revenue growth in constant currency and organic adjusted EBITDA growth in constant currency are used by management to analyze the Corporations' revenue and adjusted EBITDA growth excluding the effects of changes in foreign exchange rates and the impact of acquisitions, in order to facilitate period-to-period comparisons. Management believes these measures are used by certain investors and analysts to evaluate the Corporation's performance.	Revenue and adjusted EBITDA changes in constant currency (as calculated above), expressed as a percentage of the variation between the periods presented, adjusted for the impact of acquisitions.
Capital intensity, excluding network expansion projects	Capital intensity, excluding network expansion projects is used by Cogeco Communications' management to assess Cogeco Communications' investment in capital expenditures and to make certain decisions, without taking into consideration capitalized investments in network expansion projects, in order to support a certain level of revenue. Cogeco Communications measures capital intensity, excluding network expansion projects, as it provides a common basis for comparing the impact of the net capital expenditures to the impact of the historical net capital expenditures prior to the acceleration of the network expansion projects. In addition, Cogeco Communications' management believes this helps certain investors and analysts to assess the impact of the network expansion projects on Cogeco Communications' capital intensity ratio. Excluding the impact of net capital expenditures in connection with network expansion projects does not imply it is non-recurring.	Net capital expenditures, excluding network expansion projects divided by revenue. Net capital expenditures, excluding network expansion projects is a non-IFRS financial measure. For more details on net capital expenditures, excluding network expansion projects, please refer to the "Non-IFRS financial measures" sub-section.

The Corporation's registered office is located at 1 Place Ville Marie, Suite 3301, Montréal, Québec, H3B 3N2.

The results of operations for the interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations for the full year. The Corporation does not expect seasonality to be a material factor in its quarterly results.

2. Basis of presentation and accounting policy developments

A) Basis of presentation

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standards ("IAS") 34, Interim Financial Reporting, as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and were approved and authorized for issuance by the Board of Directors of the Corporation on April 13, 2023. These condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared with the same accounting policies and methods of computation followed by the Corporation in its 2022 annual consolidated financial statements. These condensed interim consolidated financial statements do not include all the information required for annual financial statements and should be read in conjunction with the Corporation's 2022 annual consolidated financial statements. Certain comparative amounts in the condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been reclassified in order to conform to the fiscal 2023 consolidated financial statements presentation.

Financial information is presented in Canadian dollars, unless otherwise indicated.

B) Change in accounting policies

Demand Deposits with Restrictions on Use arising from a Contract with a Third Party (IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows)

During the third quarter of fiscal 2022, the Corporation changed the presentation of the cash from subsidies received in advance, following the application of the IFRS Interpretations Committee's agenda decision Demand Deposits with Restrictions on Use arising from a Contract with a Third Party (IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows). These funds, which were previously presented as Restricted cash, were reclassified as Cash and cash equivalents in the Corporation's consolidated statements of financial position and consolidated statements of cash flows, on a retrospective basis. The application of this agenda decision had no impact on the ultimate recognition of the subsidies, for which Property, plant and equipment continues to be recorded net of subsidies, within the consolidated statement of financial position.

The changes in presentation for the comparative periods presented in these condensed interim consolidated financial statements are summarized as follows:

Consolidated statements of cash flows

(1) The application of this agenda decision resulted in an increase of $15.7 million and $20.5 million, respectively, in Acquisition of property, plant and equipment, in the Corporation's interim consolidated statements of cash flows for the three and six-month periods ended February 28, 2022, as subsidies received in advance were previously presented as a reduction of Acquisition of property, plant and equipment based on the costs incurred in connection with these subsidized projects over the total expected costs.

(2) At November 30, 2021 and August 31, 2021, restricted cash totalling $178.7 million and $183.5 million, respectively, were reclassified to Cash and cash equivalents, in the Corporation's consolidated statements of financial position and consolidated statements of cash flows for the periods then ended.

C) Future changes to standards, interpretations and amendments to standards and interpretations

New standards, interpretations and amendments to standards and interpretations were issued by the IASB or the IFRS Interpretations Committee, but have not yet been applied in preparing these condensed interim consolidated financial statements. The following issued amendments to standards may have an impact on future consolidated financial statements of the Corporation:

Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current and Non-current Liabilities with Covenants - Amendments to IAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements	In January 2020, the IASB issued Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current (Amendments to IAS 1) to clarify the criterion for classifying a liability as non-current relating to the right to defer settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period. In October 2022, the IASB issued Non-current Liabilities with Covenants (Amendments to IAS 1) to clarify how conditions with which an entity must comply within twelve months after the reporting period affect the classification of a liability. The amendments also require an entity to disclose additional information in the notes to the financial statements to enable stakeholders to understand the risk that non-current liabilities could become repayable within twelve months after the reporting date. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2024, with earlier application permitted. The Corporation is currently assessing the impact of these amendments on its consolidated financial statements.
Disclosure of Accounting Policies - Amendments to IAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements, and IFRS Practice Statement 2	In February 2021, the IASB amended IAS 1 to require entities to disclose their material accounting policy information rather than their significant accounting policies. Further amendments to IAS 1 are made to explain how an entity can identify a material accounting policy. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023, with earlier application permitted. The Corporation is currently assessing the impact of these amendments on its accounting policies disclosure.

(1) Includes revenue from Internet, video and phone residential customers, as well as bulk residential customers.

(2) During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2022, the Corporation modified its definition of Internet service customers in order to be consistent with industry practices. The previous definition also included wholesale Internet customers, now presented in Other. As per the new definition, Internet service customers include only customers who have their Internet service installed, operated and billed directly by the Corporation. This change has been applied retrospectively to the comparative figures.

(3) During the first quarter of fiscal 2023, the Corporation changed the presentation of the revenue related to certain bulk accounts, from residential to commercial. This change has been applied retrospectively to the comparative figures, and consequently revenue reclassifications of $3.6 million and $7.7 million were reflected for the three and six-month periods of fiscal 2022, respectively. The total revenue reclassification for fiscal 2022 amounts to $15.7 million.

4. Segment information

The Corporation's results are reported in two operating segments: Canadian telecommunications and American telecommunications. The reporting structure reflects how the Corporation manages its business activities to make decisions about resources to be allocated to the segments and to assess their performance. The Corporation and its chief operating decision maker assess the performance of each operating segment based on adjusted EBITDA, which is equal to Revenue less Operating expenses. Transactions between operating segments are measured at the amounts agreed to between the parties.

15. Financial instruments

A) Financial risk management

Management's objectives are to protect the Corporation and its subsidiaries against material economic exposures and variability of results, and against certain financial risks including credit, liquidity, interest rate, foreign exchange and market risks which are described in the Corporation's 2022 annual consolidated financial statements.

Credit risk

The lowest credit rating of the counterparties to the derivative financial instruments agreements at February 28, 2023 is "A-" by Standard & Poor's rating services ("S&P"). In the current volatile financial market environment, management continues to monitor its exposure to financial institutions which is primarily in the form of deposits, derivatives and revolver commitments.

Liquidity risk

At February 28, 2023, the Corporation had used $46.5 million of its $100 million Term Revolving Facility and an amount of $0.03 million was used from Cogeco Communications' Term Revolving Facility of $750 million, for remaining availabilities of $53.5 million and $749.98 million, respectively. In addition, Cogeco Communications' U.S. subsidiaries benefit from a Senior Secured Revolving Facility of $204.1 million (US$150 million), of which $3.7 million (US$2.7 million) was used at February 28, 2023 for a remaining availability of $200.4 million (US$147.3 million). The amounts used from Cogeco Communications' facilities consist solely of letters of credit.

Interest rate risk

At February 28, 2023, all of the Corporation's and Cogeco Communications' long-term debt was at fixed rate, except for the amounts drawn under the Corporation's Term Revolving Facility and Cogeco Communications' First Lien Credit Facilities, which are subject to floating interest rates.

To reduce the risk on the floating interest rate instruments and mitigate the impact of interest rate variations, Cogeco Communications' U.S. subsidiary entered into fixed interest rate swap agreements. The following table shows the interest rate swaps outstanding at February 28, 2023:

Type of hedge	Notional amount	Receive interest rate	Pay interest rate	Maturity	Hedged item
Cash flow	US$540 million	US LIBOR base rate ⁽¹⁾	2.07% - 2.26%	January 2024 - November 2024	Senior Secured Term Loan B - Tranche 1
Cash flow	US$800 million	US LIBOR base rate with a 50 bps floor	1.22% - 1.46%	October 2025 - July 2027	Senior Secured Term Loan B - Tranche 2

(1) Two tranches amounting to US$230 million have matured on January 31, 2023.

COGECO INC.

NOTES TO THE CONDENSED INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

February 28, 2023

(unaudited)

(amounts in tables are in thousands of Canadian dollars, except number of shares or units and per share data)

The sensitivity of the Corporation's annual financial expense to an increase of 1% in the interest rate applicable to the unhedged portion of these facilities would represent an increase of approximately $15.9 million based on the outstanding debt and swap agreements at February 28, 2023.

Considering that the remaining US LIBOR benchmark rates will be discontinued on June 30, 2023, the Corporation will transition its US LIBOR interest derivatives to expected substantially similar interest derivatives referencing SOFR.

B) Fair value of financial instruments

The carrying value of all the Corporation's financial instruments approximates fair value, except as otherwise noted in the following table:

	February 28, 2023		August 31, 2022
	Carrying value	Fair value	Carrying value	Fair value
	$	$	$	$
Notes, debentures and credit facilities	4,999,813	4,907,567	4,671,797	4,549,523

C) Capital management

The Corporation's objectives in managing capital are to ensure sufficient liquidity to support the capital requirements of its various businesses, including development of the business by acquisition, internal growth opportunities and innovation. The Corporation manages its capital structure and makes adjustments in light of general economic conditions, the regulatory environment, the risk characteristics of the underlying assets and the Corporation's working capital requirements. Management of the capital structure involves the issuance of new debt, the repayment of existing debt, the issuance or repurchase of equity and distributions to shareholders.

The capital structure of the Corporation is composed of shareholders' equity, cash and cash equivalents, bank indebtedness and long-term debt.

At February 28, 2023 and August 31, 2022, the Corporation and its subsidiary, Cogeco Communications, were in compliance with all of their debt covenants and were not subject to any other externally imposed capital requirements.

Corporation

The financial covenants related to the indebtedness of Cogeco Inc. are primarily based on a ratio of net indebtedness to adjusted EBITDA, computed on the basis of Cogeco Media subsidiary's adjusted EBITDA results and the dividends and management fees received from Cogeco Communications, net of corporate expenses.

Net indebtedness is a measure used by management to assess the Corporation's financial leverage, as it represents the debt net of the available unrestricted cash and cash equivalents. The reconciliation of net indebtedness to long-term debt is as follows:

	February 28, 2023	August 31, 2022
Long-term debt, including the current portion	5,069,242	4,738,610
Discounts, transaction costs and other	45,092	49,716

Royalties payable for retransmission of distant television signals

On July 22, 2021, the Federal Court of Appeal issued a decision in response to two applications for judicial review filed by six broadcasting distribution undertakings ("BDUs") (including Cogeco Communications) and nine collective societies challenging a decision by the Copyright Board setting the quantum of royalties payable for the retransmission of distant Canadian and U.S. television over-the-air signals in Canada, for the 2014-2018 period. The Federal Court of Appeal determined that the 2014 and 2015 rates would be final but agreed with the collective societies that the Copyright Board had made errors in determining the 2016 to 2018 rates. The Federal Court of Appeal has sent the matter back to the Copyright Board, which initiated a new proceeding to determine the rates from 2016 onwards.

On February 6, 2023, the Copyright Board issued its preliminary conclusions in its redetermination of the 2016 to 2018 rates, which would result in an increase from the rate set in its original decision. In light of these preliminary determinations, the Corporation has recognized an amount of $5.1 million during the second quarter of fiscal 2023, within Acquisition, integration, restructuring and other costs, related to the estimated retroactive costs for the period of 2016 to 2022. The final outcome of this proceeding is still unknown and the Copyright Board's final determinations regarding royalty rates may vary from its preliminary determinations.
